FOR
LOVE & LIGHT
ON EARTH

Radiant Meditations
for Personal and Planetary Healing

1. The Lightworker's Ascension Prayer (18:01)

Open a gateway of light for Higher Spiritual Guidance to connect with you now through this guided invocation and meditation. A truly powerful spiritual energiser to align you with the Light. Every time you practice this meditation as an individual or group, you are strengthening the Light here on Earth!

This healing meditation, based on the Great Invocation, which is a prayer channelled by Alice Bailey, attracts high-level spiritual energy. It does this by aligning you with your Soul and the Masters. As you grow in sensitivity to spiritual presence, you will feel surges of energy through your body during the meditation as you make contact with this loving spiritual intelligence. This meditation is excellent for group work on planetary healing – for example, if a group is sending healing to a person, place or incident or if you wish to simply call in the Light and send it to the Earth.

2. The Violet Flame Initiation (25:13)

Give your crown chakra a power-shot with this intense guided spiritual healing ritual. Master St Germain and Archangel Tzadkiel orchestrate your healing initiation promoting intensive clearing, which is particularly helpful following times of emotional disturbance, psychic overwhelm or psychological stress, bringing clean, fresh energy to the Soul.

Master Guide St Germain inspired this channelling with his gift to humanity of the Violet Flame to cleanse and protect our energy fields. Here you are guided through an embodiment process to become a living expression of the Violet Flame, internalising its properties of transmutation, healing and spiritual protection at a deep cellular level. Archangel Tzadkiel of the Violet Ray adds angelic strength to this beautiful healing initiation. Both the Master and Archangel in this initiation exercise are of an incredibly refined vibration. Their combined energies create spiritual cleansing and purification of the highest degree.

3. Awakening the Sacred Heart with Christ Consciousness (18:03)

Enter into this deeply emotional meditation to connect with the Christ Consciousness that is Divine Love. Awaken your Sacred Heart and experience the bliss of pure unconditional love where healing miracles are made possible for us and our planet.

This channelled meditation is my personal favourite and almost always evokes a tear or two. It is a personal and planetary healing meditation encouraging higher development of the heart chakra through connection with the Christ energy of divine love. It just feels amazing! The Christ is a Master radiating the most extraordinary spiritual vibrations. When we open to connect with that divine presence, we are healed.

Introduction to Lightworkers and the Ascended Masters

Are you a lightworker?

Are you open to the experience of spiritual growth and inner healing? Do you want to live your Divine Life Purpose and help the Earth or contribute to humanity in a healing way? Then you are a lightworker and these meditations are for you!

Who are the Ascended Masters and why meditate with them?

The Ascended Masters are loving Spiritual Guides who work with any human who wishes to heal personally, grow spiritually and help create a more conscious, loving human culture here on Earth. These beings belong to no religion or creed, and are loving guides to all who ask for their assistance.

When you meditate with the intention of connecting to the Masters with these meditations you are inviting their presence to awaken and deepen within you. As this occurs you experience such love, inspiration, healing and peace!

Whether you have been in conscious connection with the Masters for years, or if you know nothing about the Masters at all and are not even sure if you are a lightworker, they will share their healing presence with you in these meditations. Their love and healing is yours to share in, dear one.

Lightworkers Are Awakening Right Now!

Life on Earth is changing. Humanity is going through a spiritual growth-spurt and as a lightworker, you will have already felt the stirrings of change within.

This change is the beginning of a new order just being born on our planet, and it finds first life in the hearts of lightworkers everywhere. We are being asked to let go of that which no longer serves our growth and to live with love and trust.

These meditations support lightworkers in shifting from sleeping state to awakening, acting and changing their lives for the better. The Ascended Masters want you to recognise your spiritual potential as a human being – to own your power to create, manifest and love. The Ascended Masters help you grow so you can continue to co-create our new world and find your unique place in it.

Do not underestimate your importance at this time. You are much needed and very loved!

Enjoy spiritual healing and lightworker training at home

These CDs are your personal spiritual healing session with higher guidance and an at-home meditation course for lightworkers. They facilitate spiritual communion in your very own living room! They are wonderful to use in meditation groups, with your children or as some much needed spiritual time-out for you on your own.

Get to know Alana

I invite you to experience the world that I live in for a moment. In this world the real success is living truthfully from one's heart and honouring wherever the inner journey to wholeness guides you.

Having the courage to be who you are and to live into the Self fully as a divine instrument is the ultimate goal and all others serve that higher purpose.

This is a place where the inner world is as real as the outer world; where Guidance will have a conversation with me just as a friend does (often whilst I am having a chat with that friend which I call a spiritual party line!).

In my world I don't just listen to people speak, I hear them from the depths of their soul, I see their auras, I hear what they are saying behind their words, I feel their truths and I am blessed with an understanding of their journey.

The passport into this world is trust. It allows recognition of the divine presence in all of Life. Then we can participate in the mystery rather than trying to control the flow. Then no matter whether the world around us understands our way, we are helping birth this new consciousness on our planet.

You are an important part of this awakening. Your work with these meditations is a practical way to become a channel for healing. This is a gift to more than yourself. We all benefit, so thank you!

The soul work that I share

I have always been in conscious connection with Spirit, even as a small child. I read, translate and effect changes in the human energy field. I am a catalyst for healing and activating higher consciousness.

As an inspirational spiritual teacher, lightworker and healer, I channel messages and consciousness from the universal mind, from higher guidance and the well of divine wisdom. In my vocation, I am a psychologist of the soul, communing with the divine and bringing back messages to uplift, heal and inspire.

I stand for living an authentic, spiritually-connected life that is dedicated to soul growth and service to the greater whole through the development and expression of unique gifts and talents.

My background and education

Whilst I have studied metaphysics for as long as I can recall (and my bookshelves are testament to this fact), I have tertiary degrees in literature and law and have training in psychotherapy, dance, music, meditation, astrology, spiritual healing and the psychic arts. I felt the call to spiritual guidance at age nine, and began offering advice to my fellow classmates in a school-yard healing centre (under the tree, by the back gate in the playground)!

For over a decade now, that childhood sense has manifested as a full-time vocational dedication to living, walking and talking the path of the Soul, with special attention to healing for lightworkers and those seeking to carve out a life of individuality, courageously breaking with mass-opinion in favour of independent thought and personal spiritual integrity.

I welcome those that have felt the call of their hearts to a more spiritually-authentic life to join me now and come and play with so many like-minded souls who are waking up to spiritual revolution within and dancing lightly on the Earth to the beat of their own heart. Welcome to the dance, bright ones, may the love of your Soul fill you with joy.

Keep in touch & and connect with like-minded souls
