

1. FIRST RAY OF POWER

The First Ray of Power is energy of conscious destruction. It can be used in a healthy way to eliminate the past and allow for a fresh start. The First Ray also carries the frequency of leadership. It can assist you to stand in the truth of your light so others can find their way by it. It helps to strengthen your willpower so you can accomplish any task you choose. The Ascended Master El Morya brings you his particular blessing and encourages you to believe in your own strength and take the initiative on what matters most to you.

If you are confused about which path to take or whether to continue a certain relationship, course of action or lifestyle choice, the First Ray of Power will clarify matters for you. When it moves through our lives, whatever is holding us back will be removed – either through circumstances seemingly beyond our own control or by our own actions, based on a sudden inner knowing.

When the First Ray of Power is indicated, a long-term plan that was once important to you may suddenly seem as though it needs to change or even be released altogether. Or you may suddenly get the motivation to go for something you have been dreaming of for a long time. Once this ray affects your life, your understanding of what is helpful and what is not can change overnight. The changes will feel very true, freeing and helpful. Those people, dreams and opportunities that remain in your life afterwards have survived the ‘onslaught’ of divine will. This means that the Universe is confirming that they are meant to be part of your journey at this time.

The First Ray of Power also relates to matters of leadership and politics. Be open as to how your spiritual journey might be helpful in the world of politics, whether that be through aligning yourself with a cause that resonates deeply in your heart or through bringing a more open and discerning viewpoint into the often deceptive world of politics. Speaking your truth will be very helpful at this time, not only for you, but also for those around you who are willing to hear your voice and make their own choices from a clearer place within. Don't be afraid to be heard.

If your life purpose involves either driving a meaningful political cause forward or assuming a position of leadership in some other way, you'll feel the truth of this and be given encouragement from the Ascended Master El Morya to trust yourself as a leader with heart and awareness.

Finally, when this ray makes its way into your life, it is time to accept the loving gauntlet being thrown down by the Universe and take your hands off the controls of your life! Detach and be curious. The Universe will show you exactly what you need and remove what you do not. If something or someone is no longer a part of your life, it will be so that a more beautiful, truthful and satisfying version of what you are surrendering can come into your world. Remember, the Universe loves you and wants only the best and most beautiful life experience for you. Trust it enough to let that happen now.

INVOCATION

I now accept, of my own free will, the blessing and grace of the First Ray of Power in my life. Through unconditional love and divine mercy, I surrender my life into the loving hands of the Universe to align me with higher will and the most beautiful expression of my life journey. I call upon the loving assistance of the genuine Ascended Master El Morya in all aspects of this process and ask that the First Ray of Power be expressed in ways that serve the greatest good on this planet, that all beings may walk their true divine path. Through divine grace, so be it.

2. SECOND RAY OF WISDOM

The Second Ray of Wisdom is a consciousness of loving wisdom straight from the heart of the Universe. It amplifies the magnetic power of attraction, empowering you to pull into your life all that is needed for your life's work. It brings the opportunity to heal, restore and understand through the power of love and the light of ancient wisdom. The spiritual master known as the Buddha is with you, now, to help you fully receive and integrate the blessing of this ray of light from the Universe.

The Second Ray of Wisdom is the energy of the open and loving heart of the Universe. It is inclusive, drawing all things towards it with an invisible magnetism. It is gifted to you at this time to help you attract into your life the people, opportunities and teachings that will help you succeed in your life mission.

This ray will help you focus your consciousness in your heart. It will bring to consciousness any unresolved matters of the heart for healing. This includes not only issues of relationship, but also any issues around trusting your heart to lead you. This ray will help heal your heart in an affirming and nurturing way.

The challenge with this ray, given that it is so magnetic and attractive, is learning to discern and say no when you need to. Imagine a fisherman who casts a very wide net and catches most of the ocean in it! Not everything is useful or even desired by the fisherman. While some things are gratefully accepted by the fisherman, other things are best returned to the ocean where they belong.

Being able to trust in future abundance is important. You will not need to hold on to every opportunity, person or situation out of fear of loss or lack. Instead, you are learning to live in true abundance and flow. Practise feeling comfortable in letting go, as well as receiving. Trust that the Universe has all that you want and need in unlimited supply. The Universe will truly provide for you dear child of light.

This is a very different way of thinking to how most humans are conditioned from an early age. But it's never too late to change one's mind and open one's heart to a more loving, abundant and enjoyable way to live.

When the Buddha comes into your world, he brings the gift of wisdom. That includes openness to all that is without judgement. This might be the struggle that will eventually be revealed as a blessing in disguise. It might be the challenge that causes you to grow into readiness for the next phase of your divine life mission.

Finally, as the Second Ray of Wisdom relates particularly to teachers and education, you are encouraged to trust that you have a message to share that is helpful and educational for others. Whether your involvement in education and teaching is formal or less obvious, you are encouraged to honour the energy of the teacher in your life. In some way, your soul purpose likely involves helping others to learn through wisdom and love.

INVOCATION

I now accept, of my own free will, the blessing and grace of the Second Ray of Wisdom in my life. Through unconditional love and divine mercy, I open my heart with joy to the magnetic and creative field of attraction. I gratefully open up to abundance in all ways with trust, wisdom and serenity. The Universe provides all that I want and need with grace, love and perfect timing. Thank you Universe! I call on the loving assistance of the genuine ascended master known as the Buddha in all aspects of this process so that all beings can receive the loving benefit of this spiritual gift, according to divine compassion. Through divine grace, so be it.

3. THIRD RAY OF CREATIVE INTELLIGENCE

The Third Ray of Creative Intelligence brings the gift of practical spirituality and develops the talent for grounding inspired creativity into the world. It empowers your manifestation. This ray brings many gifts, including new ideas and the practical support needed to bring them to life, the ability to organise, make connections and networks and synthesise information from various sources into one coherent whole. Archangel Chamuel helps you receive this gift from the Universe with love and intelligence.

The Third Ray of Creative Intelligence will help you gain practicality to organise and manifest an idea or vision in the world. It gives you the drive and the means to implement your plans. When this ray is active in our lives, we want to take action, bring something to life – not just to know or feel, but to do. With this oracle comes a message about taking action and believing that even the most inspired and spiritual ideas can have practical purpose in the world. Your visions and ideas can and should be worked with so they can manifest.

You must believe in your capability and competence, your confidence and practical, down-to-earth common sense, even if these are not always your strongest qualities. If you doubt your ability to achieve all that you dream of, remember that sometimes the Universe puts dreams in our hearts to help us develop strengths that are dormant within us. This can bring to life a whole slew of abilities and talents we didn't know we had. We are given nudges in life to discover what we are made of – which can be so much more than we might have initially believed.

The challenge with this ray is to take it one step at a time. Allow the Universe to help you find the patience, persistence and sense of humour that will help you stick to the process of creation. Do not try to do too much at once, nor allow your project to get too complicated. Above all, do not give up before you have finally brought your inner light to life in the world.

Archangel Chamuel brings the gift of reclaiming lost energy, ideas or talents that can help you fulfil your divine potential. This archangel helps you re-awaken talents from this or other lifetimes that may have been cast aside. Perhaps your intuitive healing energy was put to one side as you studied or tended to family responsibilities. Perhaps your business sense or your ability to market yourself in a soulful and loving way is yet to be discovered. Maybe an ability to teach or the clear, confident voice of a writer is within you, waiting to be developed. This archangel will help you find and apply, with loving confidence, whatever talents and abilities are required to turn your aspirations into manifestations.

As this ray has a special connection with business, you are asked to remain open to learning and growing through financial success. This ray can help heal the tension that many feel between spirituality and financial abundance. It helps us recognise that the spirit feels joy in successful physical-world endeavours, particularly those that serve love. When a situation is a win-win for all involved, there is no reason at all to hold back from material success. It can be celebrated and enjoyed, whilst you maintain the true motivation for the work – which is love.

INVOCATION

I now accept, of my own free will, the blessing and grace of the Third Ray of Creative Intelligence. I thank the Universe for all assistance in turning my spiritual aspirations into successful, practical, real-world manifestations of light, grace, love and empowerment. I gratefully receive the unconditionally loving intervention of Archangel Chamuel to recover and express all talents and abilities meant to help me fulfil my mission. Thank you, Universe, for helping me to manifest my divine dreams. I ask that, in unconditional love, this ray be made available to all who can benefit from it, according to divine wisdom, mercy and compassion for the greatest good. So be it.
